

POWERING Indian Literature

Nominations for the following categories are invited till March 31, 2018 :

- ◆ Hindi Fiction / Hindi Non Fiction / Translation from Regional Languages into Hindi
- ◆ English Fiction / English Non Fiction / Translation from Regional Languages and Hindi into English
- ◆ Writings for young adults (English / Hindi)

REC VoW Awardees 2018

Murder in Mahim
by Jerry Pinto
(Speaking Tiger)

Durrand's Curse
by Rajiv Dogra
(Rupa)

Prem Chand ki Kahani Yatra aur Bhartiyata
by KK Goyanka (Samayik Prakashan)

Mishti, the Mirzapuri Labrador
by Gillian Wright
(Speaking Tiger)

REC Limited (formerly Rural Electrical Corporation Limited) a Navratna PSU, involved in power sector financing and Valley of Words (VoW), a 'not-for-profit' initiative of The Shivalik Hills Foundation Trust have come together to acknowledge and celebrate writings published in India during the course of the preceding year through REC Vow Book Awards. The REC Vow Book Awards provides a platform for the awarded and short listed authors to share their works with a larger audience.

